

Application for a Temporary Work (Long Stay Activity) visa

The Department of Immigration and Border Protection (the department) acknowledges that Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples are the traditional custodians of the Australian land.

Life in Australia – Australian values

The Australian Government encourages people to gain an understanding of Australia, its people and their way of life, before applying for a visa to live in Australia. As part of this application every person aged 18 years or over must declare that they will respect Australian values, as outlined below and obey the laws of Australia.

Australian values include respect for the freedom and dignity of the individual, freedom of religion, commitment to the rule of law, Parliamentary democracy, equality of men and women and a spirit of egalitarianism that embraces mutual respect, tolerance, fair play and compassion for those in need and pursuit of the public good.

Australian society also values equality of opportunity for individuals, regardless of their race, religion or ethnic background.

It is also important to understand that English is the national language.

Further information is contained in the Life in Australia booklet, however, you are not required to read the booklet. The booklet is available in a wide range of languages. If you would like a copy of the booklet it can be obtained from www.immi.gov.au

About this form

Important – Please read this information carefully before you complete the application. Once you have completed the application we strongly advise that you keep a copy for your records.

All relevant questions on this form should be answered and any requested information attached. The department may decide the application on the basis of the information provided on the application form.

All forms are available from the department's website www.immi.gov.au/allforms/

Who should use this form?

Use this form if you:

- have been nominated by a long stay activity sponsor or exchange sponsor to work in a skilled position under a staff exchange arrangement;
- have been nominated by a long stay activity sponsor or sport sponsor to be employed or to undertake an activity in a sports position in relation to a sporting club, team or event in Australia;
- have been nominated by a long stay activity sponsor or religious worker sponsor to undertake full-time religious work in Australia that directly serves an institution's religious objectives;

- have been nominated by a long stay activity sponsor to undertake full-time domestic duties in the private household of an eligible Temporary Work (Skilled) (subclass 457) visa holder or a Temporary Work (International Relations) (subclass 403) visa holder who has been granted in the privileges and immunities stream; or
- are a family member of a primary applicant or holder of a Temporary Work (Long Stay Activity) visa, Exchange visa, Sport visa, Religious Worker visa or Domestic Worker (Executive) visa and you are applying to join them.

Who should be included in this application?

As the primary person you should include your details as well as all family members (secondary persons) who will be accompanying you to Australia.

Family members include your partner, children under 18 years of age AND children and other relatives 18 years or over who are wholly or substantially reliant on you for financial support for their basic needs.

'Partner' means your spouse or de facto partner (including a same-sex partner).

People 18 years or over must show that they have been reliant on you for a substantial period and that they are more reliant on you than on any other person or source. A person may also be considered dependent on you if they rely on you for financial support because of a disability.

Note: A child of any age who is engaged to be married or who has a partner is not considered dependent.

Family members joining a temporary resident in Australia

If as a family member you intend to join the primary person in Australia who holds a Temporary Work (Long Stay Activity) (subclass 401) visa, Exchange (subclass 411) visa, Sport (subclass 421) visa, Religious Worker (subclass 428) visa or Domestic Worker (Executive) (subclass 427) visa you will need to make a separate visa application.

All applicants for this visa must be sponsored. You must show evidence that the organisation in Australia who has sponsored the primary visa holder will also accept responsibility for you during your stay in Australia.

Integrity of application

The department is committed to maintaining the integrity of the visa and citizenship programmes. In relation to this application, if you or a member of your family unit:

- provide, or have provided in a previous application, fraudulent documents or false or misleading information (knowingly or not); and/or
- fail to satisfy, or have failed to satisfy in a previous application, the Minister of your or their identity;

this visa application may be refused and you, and any members of your family unit, may become unable to be granted a visa for specified periods of time, as set out in migration legislation.

If information or documents are found to be fraudulent or misleading after the grant of a visa, it may subsequently be cancelled.

Sponsorship obligations

The sponsor must meet a number of sponsorship obligations in relation to the primary person and any secondary persons.

Further information about sponsorship obligations is available from the department's website

www.immi.gov.au/business/pages/temporary-residence-sponsor-obligations.aspx

If your visa application is approved, it will permit you to work or undertake activities for your sponsor in the nominated position, or position in relation to which your visa was granted, for the visa validity period. Should you cease employment or the activities with your sponsor, or if you believe the sponsor is not meeting their sponsorship obligations, you should contact your nearest office of the department.

To ensure the integrity of temporary sponsored residence visas, the department has a thorough monitoring process to assist in ensuring compliance with programme requirements.

Other obligations

The sponsor must also comply with other applicable laws of the Commonwealth, states and territories. If the department believes that the sponsor has breached a law of the Commonwealth or a state or territory, the department may take action to bar the sponsor from accessing further overseas people for the specified period or may cancel the sponsorship.

Further information about sponsorship obligations is available from the department's website

www.immi.gov.au/business/pages/temporary-residence-sponsor-obligations.aspx

Residential address

You must provide the address of where you intend to live during the period that your application is being considered. Failure to give your residential address will result in this application being invalid. A post office box address will not be accepted as your residential address.

Passport information

Most visa applicants will be required to hold a valid passport before they can be granted a visa. It is strongly recommended that the passport be valid for at least 6 months.

If you change your passport after you have been granted the visa you must notify the nearest Australian mission or office of the department.

If you do not provide us with the details of any new or additional passport you use to travel to Australia, you may experience significant delays at the airport and may be denied permission to board your plane.

Do NOT send your passport with your visa application.

You must provide with your visa application a certified copy of the page from your passport showing your photo and details. The department will advise you if your application has been approved. Please keep a copy of the Visa Grant Notification in a safe place for your reference.

Health requirements

All applicants must meet Australia's health requirements. You and any family members included in this application may be required to undergo a chest x-ray and health examination in order to meet the criteria for the grant of a subclass 401 visa.

For further information, refer to the department's website www.immi.gov.au/allforms/health-requirements/health-exam.htm

Health insurance requirements

You are required to hold adequate private medical and hospital health insurance for the entire time you are in Australia on a subclass 401 visa. This insurance does not have to be held with an Australian insurer – arrangements made in your home country may be assessed as being acceptable.

To meet this requirement you should attach to this application evidence of your health insurance policy which states the level of health care provided by the insurance policy. A copy of the suggested certification letter and further information on the minimum level of coverage is available from www.immi.gov.au/skilled/

The above does not apply if you have enrolled with Medicare (Australia's national health cover). Information on entitlements to Medicare is available from www.humanservices.gov.au

Medicare Levy Exemption

Subclass 401 visa holders who are not an eligible Australian resident for Medicare benefit purposes and whose country does not have a reciprocal health arrangement with Australia may be eligible to obtain an exemption of the Medicare levy payment in their tax return. Please contact Medicare Australia directly for further advice on 132 011 or by writing to:

Levy Exemption Certification Unit
Medicare Australia

HOBART TAS 7001

Visa conditions

Visa condition 8107

If your visa application is approved, it will be subject to visa condition 8107.

This requires that a primary holder of a subclass 401 visa, must not, during their period of stay:

- cease to be employed, or cease to undertake the activity in relation to which the visa was granted;
- work in a position, or engage in an activity inconsistent with the position or activity in relation to which the visa was granted; or
- engage in work for another person or on their own account, while undertaking the employment or activity in relation to which the visa was granted.

If you wish to work for another organisation which is not your current sponsor you do not need to make a new visa application. Before you can work for another organisation, your new sponsor must nominate you to undertake that position. You must not commence work for the new sponsor until the nomination is approved.

Visa condition – 8501

If your visa application is approved, it will be subject to condition 8501. This requires all visa holders to maintain adequate health insurance while in Australia and holding a subclass 401 visa.

Visa condition – 8303

If your visa application is approved, it will be subject to condition 8303. Visa holders must not become involved in activities disruptive to, or violence threatening harm to, the Australian community or a group within the Australian community.

In addition, there may be other conditions of your entry and stay in Australia applied to your visa.

How to apply

Step 1 – Sponsorship and nomination

To make a valid application for a subclass 401 visa, you must not make your visa application before the organisation that intends to sponsor you has:

- made an application to become a long stay activity sponsor, exchange sponsor, sport sponsor or religious worker sponsor; and
- made a nomination identifying you and the position that you intend to undertake in Australia.

If the organisation has been approved as a sponsor and the nomination has been approved, your sponsor will provide you with a copy of the Nomination approval letter for you to provide with your visa application. If the sponsorship or nomination has not been decided when you make your visa application the sponsor will provide you with the Nomination application acknowledgement of receipt letter to confirm that a nomination has been made.

The visa application will not be assessed until the nomination is decided. We recommend that you lodge your visa application after you receive confirmation that the nomination is approved.

Step 2 – Check your passports

Make sure you and all family member(s) seeking to accompany you have valid passports. It is strongly recommended that passports be valid for at least 6 months.

If you are already in Australia and are eligible to apply in Australia, check the expiry date of your current visa. If you can apply whilst in Australia, you should make your visa application before your current visa expires.

Note: If you already have a visa for travel to Australia and you are granted another visa, the first visa will cease.

Step 3 – How to fill in this form

This form is available as a PDF file and can be completed on screen, printed and mailed to the department or you can print a copy and use a black or blue pen, write neatly in English using BLOCK LETTERS.

You will be required to select the visa stream that relates to the position that you intend to undertake and that matches the nomination type identified by your sponsor in the nomination.

The 4 streams of the subclass 401 visa are:

- Exchange – for skilled people entering under exchange arrangements, giving Australian residents reciprocal opportunities to work with overseas organisations
- Sport – for sports people to improve the quality of sport in Australia through participation in high-level competition with Australian residents
- Religious worker – for religious workers who want to undertake full-time religious work in Australia that directly serves an institution's religious objectives
- Domestic worker (executive) – for domestic staff to work in the private household of an eligible Temporary Work (Skilled) (subclass 457) visa holder or Temporary Work (International Relations) (subclass 403) visa holder granted in the privileges and immunities stream, who is a senior executive in charge of an Australian office of the foreign organisation or foreign government agency.

If you need more space to answer questions or wish to provide additional relevant information, give details at Part Q – Additional information or attach a signed and dated sheet giving the required details.

Any alterations made on the form must be initialled and dated.

You will need to supply a recent passport-sized photograph of each person included in this application.

Step 4 – Visa application charge

Check if a Visa Application Charge is required.

Not all applications attract a charge, but when a prescribed charge is applicable, the application will not be valid unless payment has been received.

A charge is not required if the nominated activity is listed in a Legislative Instrument.

If a charge is required, payment must accompany your application. Payment of the charge does not guarantee this application will be successful and is generally not refundable.

Charges may be subject to adjustment on 1 July each year.

Refer to Part N – Payment details of this form to calculate the correct charge and make payment.

To make a payment in Australia, please pay by credit card, debit card, bank cheque or money order made payable to the Department of Immigration and Border Protection. Debit card and credit card are the preferred methods of payment.

Step 5 – Making your visa application

To make your visa application you must provide the completed application, payment and any attachments if required. Refer to Part O – Document checklist for the list of documents required.

If you are making a paper-based visa application in certain countries you will need to provide biometrics, see 'Countries and Visa Subclasses included in the Biometrics Programme' on the department's website www.immi.gov.au/allforms/biometrics/offshore/

Your application should be lodged at the correct address for this visa application. More information about Temporary Work (Long Stay Activity) visas and lodgement addresses is available from the department's website www.immi.gov.au/visas/pages/401.aspx. Please read the information under 'How to apply' for the correct lodgement address for this application.

Let the department know if you change your address

If you change your residential address for more than 14 days while your application is being processed, you must tell the department your new address and how long you will be there.

The department will send communication about your application to the latest address for correspondence you have provided.

Communication about your application can be sent to another person that you have authorised, but you will be taken to have received the communication that the department sends to that person. The department must be informed (in writing) of any address change for either you or your authorised person.

Applications made by people who are in Australia

If you are applying for a class of visa which may be granted in Australia, this form also serves as an application for any class of Bridging visa (Classes A, C or E) for which you may be eligible to apply. Further explanation is available on the department's website www.immi.gov.au/visas/bridging/

If you need to travel overseas temporarily before the application is decided, you should contact the processing office to enquire about a Bridging visa B, to enable you to return to Australia.

If you are seeking to change the work conditions of your existing visa before the application is decided, you should apply on form 1005 Application for a bridging visa.

You should lodge the form at the nearest office of the department in the state or territory in which you are at the time of application (if you are in NSW, you may lodge your application in the ACT if it is closer to where you live).

This application will not be valid if you are a holder of a criminal justice entry visa, or if you are a detainee who has not made an application within the prescribed time limits, or if you are a holder of a visa subject to a condition preventing the grant of a substantive visa while you remain in Australia.

What happens next?

Your application will be considered and you may be asked to provide additional information to enable a decision to be made.

If you want to change any details after you have made the application, or if you want to withdraw it, please contact the office where you made the application.

You should also advise the office if any of the information you gave in your application changes while your application is being considered.

You will be advised in writing whether your application has been approved or not.

If your application is approved you will be advised that you have been granted a subclass 401 visa on the basis of satisfying one of the following streams:

- Exchange;
- Sport;
- Religious worker; or
- Domestic worker (executive).

Family members who will accompany you or who applied separately to join you will receive advice that they have been granted a subclass 401 visa.

If your application is refused, you will be given a reason for the decision as well as information about your review rights.

Immigration assistance

A person gives immigration assistance to you if he or she uses, or claims to use, his or her knowledge or experience in migration procedure to assist you with your visa application, request for ministerial intervention, cancellation review application, sponsorship or nomination.

In Australia a person may only lawfully give immigration assistance if he or she is a registered migration agent or is exempt from being registered. Only registered migration agents may receive a fee or reward for providing immigration assistance.

If an unregistered person in Australia, who is not exempt from registration, gives you immigration assistance they are committing a criminal offence and may be prosecuted.

Migration agents in Australia

Migration agents in Australia must be registered with the Office of the Migration Agents Registration Authority (Office of the MARA) unless they are exempt from registration.

Migration agents outside Australia

Migration agents who operate outside Australia do not have to be registered. The department may give some overseas agents an ID number. This number does not mean that they are registered.

Note: Some Australian registered migration agents operate overseas.

Migration agent information

A migration agent is someone who can:

- advise you on the visa that may best suit you;
- tell you the documents you need to submit with your application;
- help you fill in the application and submit it; and
- communicate with the department on your behalf.

If you appoint a migration agent, the department will assume that your migration agent will be your authorised recipient, unless you indicate otherwise.

Your migration agent will be the person with whom the department will discuss your application and from whom it will seek further information when required.

You are not required to use a migration agent. However, if you use a migration agent, the department encourages you to use a registered migration agent. Registered agents are bound by the Migration Agents Code of Conduct, which requires them to act professionally in their clients' lawful best interests.

Information on migration agents, including a list of registered migration agents, is available on the Office of the MARA website www.mara.gov.au

You can also access information about migration agents on the department's website www.immi.gov.au

Exempt persons

The following people do not have to be a registered migration agent in order to provide immigration assistance, but they must not charge a fee for their service:

- a close family member (spouse, de facto partner, child, parent, brother or sister);
- a member of parliament or their staff;
- an official whose duties include providing immigration assistance (eg. a Legal Aid provider);
- a member of a diplomatic mission, consular post or international organisation.

Appointing a migration agent/exempt person

To appoint a migration agent/exempt person you should complete Part M – Options for receiving written communications.

Your migration agent/exempt person should complete form 956 Advice by a migration agent/exempt person of providing immigration assistance.

Form 956 is available from the department's website www.immi.gov.au/allforms/

Options for receiving written communications

If you do not appoint a migration agent/exempt person you may still authorise another person, in writing, to receive written communications on your behalf. This person is called the authorised recipient.

Authorised recipient information

All written communication about your application will be sent to your authorised recipient, unless you indicate that you wish to have health and/or character information sent directly to you.

The department will communicate with the most recently appointed authorised recipient as you may only appoint one authorised recipient at any time for a particular application.

You will be taken to have received any documents sent to that person as if they had been sent to you.

To appoint an authorised recipient you should complete:

- Part M – Options for receiving written communications; and
- form 956A Appointment or withdrawal of an authorised recipient.

Note: Migration agents/exempt persons do not need to complete form 956A.

Form 956A is available from the department's website www.immi.gov.au/allforms/

Consent to communicate electronically

The department may use a range of means to communicate with you. However, electronic means such as fax or email will only be used if you indicate your agreement to receiving communication in this way.

To process your application the department may need to communicate with you about sensitive information, for example, health, police checks, financial viability and personal relationships. Electronic communications, unless adequately encrypted, are not secure and may be viewed by others or interfered with.

If you agree to the department communicating with you by electronic means, the details you provide will only be used by the department for the purpose for which you have provided them, unless there is a legal obligation or necessity to use them for another purpose, or you have consented to use for another purpose. They will not be added to any mailing list.

The Australian Government accepts no responsibility for the security or integrity of any information sent to the department over the internet or by other electronic means.

If you authorise another person to receive documents on your behalf and they wish to be contacted electronically, their signature is required on form 956 or 956A to indicate their consent to this form of communication.

Note: Electronic communication is the fastest means of communication available and the department prefers to communicate electronically because this results in faster processing.

Important information about privacy

Your personal information is protected by law, including the Privacy Act 1988. Important information about the collection, use and disclosure (to other agencies and third parties, including overseas entities) of your personal information, including sensitive information, is contained in form 1442i Privacy notice. Form 1442i is available from the department's website www.immi.gov.au/allforms/ or offices of the department. You should ensure that you read and understand form 1442i before completing this form.

As sponsorship is required for your visa subclass, the outcome of your application may be made known to the person/organisation who has submitted a sponsorship form regarding your application.

Part P – Declaration

WARNING: Giving false or misleading information or documents is a serious offence.

61 This declaration must be signed by the primary applicant and each person aged 18 years or over who is included in this application.

I declare that:

- I have read and understood the information provided in this application;
- I have provided complete and correct information in every detail in this application, and in any attachments to it;
- I will inform the department in writing immediately as I become aware of a change in circumstances (including change of address) or if there is any change relating to information I have provided in or with this application, while it is being considered;
- I will respect Australian values as outlined on page 1 of this form, during my stay in Australia and will obey the laws of Australia;
- I have read the information contained in form 1442i Privacy notice;
- I understand the department may collect, use and disclose my personal information (including biometric information and other sensitive information) as outlined in form 1442i Privacy notice;
- I understand that if any fraudulent documents or false or misleading information has been provided with this application, or if I fail to satisfy the Minister of my identity, my application may be refused and I, and any other member of my family unit, may become unable to be granted a visa for specified periods of time;
- if documents are found to be fraudulent or information to be incorrect after the grant of a visa, the visa may subsequently be cancelled.

For offshore applicants who are required to provide their fingerprints and facial image.

I declare that:

- I understand that my fingerprints and facial image and my biographical information held by the department may be given to Australian law enforcement agencies to help identify me, to help determine my eligibility for grant of the visa I have applied for, and for law enforcement purposes.

I consent to:

- Australian law enforcement agencies disclosing my biometric, biographical and criminal record information to the department for any of the purposes outlined above;
- the department using the information obtained for the purposes of the Migration Act 1958 or the Australian Citizenship Act 2007.

If a visa is granted, I understand that:

- I must abide by the conditions of the visa;
- if a 'no further stay' 8503 condition is imposed on this visa, it will limit the ability to remain in Australia beyond the authorised period of stay of the visa.

For the primary applicant, I understand that:

- I will be responsible for any registration or licensing that is required before I can begin employment in Australia;
- I must abide by Australian employment conditions and awards.
