

A decorative crest or emblem. At the top is a kangaroo in a jumping pose, facing left. Below it is a shield divided into four quadrants. The top-left quadrant contains a cross, the top-right a bird (possibly a swan or goose), the bottom-left a sun or star, and the bottom-right a smaller shield. To the left of the shield is a stylized star. Below the shield is a kangaroo in a standing pose, facing left. The entire crest is surrounded by ornate, leafy branches. A banner or ribbon curves around the right side of the crest, bearing the word 'AUSTRALIA' in capital letters.

The Governor-General of the Commonwealth of Australia, being the representative in Australia of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second, requests all those whome it may concern to allow the bearer to pass freely without let or hindrance and to afford him or her every assistance and protection of which he or she may stand in need.
